	16. (Unclassified - LLM) HIAISON Jack Maury, DOD, called referencing contact by Representative Robert McClory (R., 111.) in connection with the electronic surveillance bill, H. R. 7308. I emphasized to Maury the importance of providing a legal basis for communications carriers to cooperate, the value of having this legislation in the bank in fighting off unwarranted restrictions in charter legislation during the next or succeeding Congresses, and that further changes in the legislation may imperil its enactment and what you gain from these changes just do not seem worth the risk. I suggested that he might like to call Tony Lapham, General Counsel.
